AT THE DAVIS.
Arthur Chatterton Company in Two Last Performances.

With two more performances only, to be given today, the Arthur Chatterton company will close their successful week's engagement at the Davis theater this evening.

This afternoon, the Frederic Koomer powerful play, "The Brute," is underlined. This is the first time ever in Norwich for this latest Broadway success, and in the hands of the excellent company, a performance second only to the original in New York.

The evening bill will be "The Girl in the Taxi," the Carter De Haven comedy, which delighted a crowded house last Tuesday evening. Too much credit cannot be attributed to the Chatterton folk for the excellent manner in which they presented this comedy Tuesday evening. In addition to the play Mr. Chatterton and Miss Bushnell will introduce the tango solo dance, one of the most recent fads at the New York theaters.

The tango tea and stage reception Friday afternoon was a complete success, over four hundred people attending. Mr. Chatterton and Miss Bushnell, dancing was indulged in for an hour. The company and guests will be at the Davis theater this evening.

COLONIAL THEATRE.
Tom Moore and Alice Joyce in "The Vampire's Trail," Two Reels.

It is very seldom that so much merit is crowded into one motion picture program as is today at the Colonial Theatre. For the first time in the history of the whole picture business are featured in the same program two of the most popular players in the whole picture business.

The Man and the Woman, the best Biograph drama ever put on the screen. Making Auntie Well come, a thrilling story. It works, are two corking comedies.

Coming Monday and Tuesday is the season's big sensation, "The Call of the North," with Robert Montgomery leading role. This is one of the famous Lankey features and is presented in five reels. The film is gorgeous and the whole play teams with the spirit of the northern woods. Don't forget the date, Monday and Tuesday only.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.
Raymond Teal will present his big musical comedy company at the Auditorium today. The evening play, "The Girl in the Taxi," the Carter De Haven comedy, which delighted a crowded house last Tuesday evening. Too much credit cannot be attributed to the Chatterton folk for the excellent manner in which they presented this comedy Tuesday evening.
